Throughout my career, I have been responsible for providing friendly, responsive service to create an exceptional dining experience for all guests. Show each guest such a marvelous time; one that they will want to return again and again. I have learned to market and plan high-volume events, and maintain an open line of communication with management to help ensure pleasurable and smooth experience for VIP customers. Utilize excellent communication and interpersonal skills to start conversations, never stop showing attention to detail to guarantee customers have a great time. Work together with other positions to certify customer safety, customer satisfaction and respect for the venue and other co-workers.
